

Memorandum of Understanding between
UNIVERSITY OF OKARA, OKARA
UNIVERSITY OF THE PUNJAB, LAHORE

The University of Okara is an emerging institute of higher learning focusing to initiate and flourish world-class academic culture in a bid to make it a center of excellence in teaching, research, and its service to local, national and international communities. University of the Punjab is the oldest and largest University in the region with 5 campuses, 13 faculties and over 1000 faculty members. Both universities offer degree programs ranging from BS (Honors) and MA/MSc/MPhil to Ph.D. in various disciplines.

Both parties are agreed to collaborate in the following areas:

1. Exchange of scientific information, academic materials, publications etc.
2. Exchange of academic staff for the purposes of teaching and research activities.
3. Cooperation on international seminars, workshops and conferences etc.
4. Teaching and research collaborations in areas of mutual research.
5. Other mutually agreed upon education program.

This MOU shall not create any financial or legal obligations to either party, whatsoever, however a separate agreement may be signed with mutual consent depending upon the nature of the project.

This MOU shall be effective for five (5) years from the date of signature by the both parties. However, during execution, if any party realizes that the work is not likely to be completed within the specified timeframe, the matter will be mutually discussed to seek permission for required extension in the timeframe.
